

SSAI Tele-learning Workshop

Monday, November 2 at 10am

We are the canary in the coal mine.

As a grandmother of 12, Sherry is thinking about the Saskatchewan we leave to the next generation. She'll share why she challenged the continued use of coal and what she believes we can do to protect the future our children and grandchildren will inherit.

Listen in to understand:

- Saskatchewan's current approach to coal for electrical generation,
- what it means for the environment,
- the politics behind it,
- how the courts are involved,
- and the needed just transition.

Sherry Olson

- one of the applicants asking for a judicial review of the Government of Saskatchewan's Coal Decision
