GIVING WITH INTENTION: A Legacy Giving Workshop for SSAI Members

What will your legacy say about what mattered to you?

Join this free telelearning session, hosted with the Saskatoon Community Foundation, to explore how thoughtful giving can become part of your estate and family planning. How to start that conversation you may have been meaning to have for years or seeing the different ways your legacy giving can be executed.

You'll walk away with:

- A clearer sense of your own priorities — what impact and legacy mean to you personally and the many ways they can be facilitated
- An understanding of who can help — and how the Saskatoon community foundation works alongside the financial advisor, accountant, or lawyer you already trust
- Real-life questions to bring to your next estate planning conversation with your trusted advisor
- A no-cost, no-pressure way to connect with the Saskatoon Community Foundation to learn more, whenever you're ready.

Whether you're thinking and revisiting about your estate, wanting to involve your family in giving, or simply curious how it all works, this session is designed to meet you where you are.
